SOLO flex Individual Coaching

for Job Seekers

Bildung schafft Zukunft.

Individual Coaching SOLO flex

Do you need individual and flexible support for your current situation?

We are here to give you the necessary support for your career path, to find solutions to your questions and to develop alternatives if needed.

Whom this offer is for

The individual coaching is for job seekers from all professional fields.

Participation

Your attendance is possible in presence or in digital form, as well as in a combination of both forms.

Dates / Duration

The starting date and the duration are individually determined. Your coach arranges the meetings directly with you, taking your needs and availability into consideration.

What we can offer you

Your coach helps you find solutions and develop ideas.

The coaching topics are defined according to personal needs.

Possible topics

- Reflection on your current life and work situation
- Identifying your personal knowledge, skills and strengths
- Professional orientation combined with training for your job search
- Coaching for job applications (cv/resume and cover letter in German and if needed in English, practice for job interviews, etc.)
- Assistance for starting a new job, apprenticeship or (further) vocational training
- Improvement of digital skills in daily use
- Development of alternative perspectives
- Establish connections with contact persons who can provide additional support in areas such as healthcare, finances or other private issues
- Assistance on balancing personal, professional, and family needs
- Search for information on various topics and other forms of assistance

Participation fees

The cost for this individual coaching offer can be covered by an activation voucher ('Aktivierungs- und Vermittlungsgutschein' - AVGS) from the Agentur für Arbeit or the Jobcenter.

Please contact your responsible advisor for more information.

There are no costs for you.

Please bring along all available documents (cv/ resume, cover letter, certificates, etc.) on your first appointment, if possible in digital form.
